“ I remember when I spoke with Barbara, as we were both getting dogs for our daughters at the same time, of course Barbara did the right thing and researched which I was not savvy at doing. After we adopted our dog, who I love very very much, I sometimes, regretted not getting a dog like you, because you were very easy to please and easy going. You were toilet trained, and listened to your family and did not scare off other dogs. So rest in peace Abby, 'cause you were very loved. I know your family were very sensitive and loving to meet your needs and did not let just anybody watch you when the family went on vacation.

*Love,
Shelley*
