“ You got there Apollolito, I will see you later my baby. I love you to no limit and miss you more than I can handle. I'll always be listening for you and always call for you.

“ Apollito was the first fur baby in the family. Since he was such a good dog we all decided to add more fur babies. He show us what unconditional love was. The true meaning of loyalty. He shape my sister into a better person & made her love for animals grow stronger.
This day we all took a hike with him. He was the center of attention for a while.
We all will miss you & love you. We were a good big cousin especially to Milan.
