“ Since I'm having problems accessing the Obituary Box, I will Share a few words and the beginning about Our Beloved Archie & his Life.

Archie leaves behind a Mom, Dad, Twin Brothers and 3 Furry Siblings named Alfie (Goldendoodle), Lucy (Goldendoodle) and Parker (St. Bernard). He was preceded in death by his Furry Sibling (Cat) named Tigger. Tigger passed away on his own terms on August 14, 2015 which is also Uncle, NYPD Det. Kevin Czartoryski's Birthday (who passed away from a 9/11 related illness).

We adopted Archie from a Rescue Group 15 years ago. The name on his crate was "Archie Affectionate." It was love at first sight. The rescue group told us that Archie was found in a Dumpster behind a Diner and was part of a colony of feral cats. This rescue group would TNR and Archie was one of them. They explained to us that since they do not have the room to accommodate all the cats, they have to release them except for Archie. They went on to say that Archie was Super "Affectionate," they did not have the heart to release him and were determined to find him a home by putting him for Adoption. Thankfully and Forever Grateful they did.

As soon as we approached his crate and put our hand in front of the gate, he purred and nestled his head into our hands. We knew he was going to be Our Boy. After completing an application and a home visit, Archie Officially became a McLoughlin. We brought him home to Tigger. The first few days were rough between the two but after slowly introducing them they Bonded and were Inseparable for years to come. We know that his love and bond, helped Tigger live to the age of 19.

Mom & Dad moved along with Archie & Tigger and soon after Mom became pregnant with Twins and decided to grow their family even bigger, so then a puppy named Alfie came home and was introduced to Archie. The day Alfie was brought home and put on the floor to meet Archie, Archie was a bit bigger than Alfie.....lol As time went on of course Alfie grew alot bigger than Archie, so we laughed until this day trying to think what Archie thought with the growth of Alfie who now Archie needed to stretch his neck to look up at Alfie.....lol

Tigger & Archie lovingly accepted Alfie into our family.

Next, our Twins came home from the hospital. Archie was very gentle and affectionate towards his New Human Twin Brothers. We never had to worry about Archie around them as babies or growing up. Archie became the Boys Buddy and Alfie their Big Brother. The boys developed quite the relationship with Archie as we never thought would come from a Cat. Then again, Archie was not just any cat.....lol

Moving forward our family became larger and the rest is history.

Archie truly was one of a kind. Anyone who came through the doors of our home, Archie accepted and would right away share his "Affection" with them. That's how much love he had to give and he gave it to us every day of his life.

At times he was mischievous, escaping a few times but never far and always right home. And his brother Alfie would gently grab him a few times to capture him for us.

Archie loved sitting in the window to feel the warmth of the sun. Or hanging off our shoulders while sitting on the couch.

At the age of 16, we made the difficult but right decision for Archie to go on to the rainbow bridge. What made it beyond difficult is because the disease did not affect his Larger than Life Affectionate Personality. He was still very loving and himself until the last beat of his heart. We held him as he left this earth and Thanked him for Loving us like he did which of course would never be long enough. His Vet Thanked us for making the decision to let him go and not suffer. He said he sees far too many people holding on while their furry family suffers.

We knew the Greatest Act of Love was to let Archie go to the Rainbow Bridge. We take comfort in knowing he did not suffer and now he is reunited with Tigger.
