“ Hey Artie!!! It's already a whole year since you left us! Wow I can't believe how fast that went! I miss you buddy but I know you and Chickie and all our other family are having so much fun in Heaven with Jesus. No new cat faces around and I thank Jesus for that . Curly is gonna be with you guys soon. He's not doing good at all. I can't wait 'til Jesus takes him home ...Please ask Jesus to make it quick...it's so hard for us to see him like he is. We miss you so much and have not stopped thinking about you. You aren't missing anything down here. I'm so happy you are safe and secure. Well, be happy and kiss everyone for us...'til we see each other again. We love you...Love Mommy xoxoxoxo

Hey Artie, I was going through Chickie's pics and I found the very first photo I took of you when you first started coming around the house. You always were such a beautiful handsome boy.

“ *Hey Artie, Boy is it ever hot today ! You wouldn't want to spend much time outside at all!
I know I wouldn't even have to coax you to come in with food or catnip either. I wanted to tell you but I know you already know 'cause Chickie is with you , that she went with Jesus Wednesday afternoon. My heart is breaking so bad, I cannot see myself getting through this! Please kiss her for me and have fun together. I'll talk to you again soon..bye for now I love you still, Mom*

“ Hey Artie It's me again Mommy... I miss you like crazy I keep looking for you.. is that silly? Summer is suppose to be coming it's still cold and it's June now! I keep thinking how much you loved to be outside warming your bones on the hot cement and not missing a thing that was going on out there. I didn't like it when I would look outside and you were off somewhere I couldn't see you. I love you so much and my heart hasn't healed from you leaving me. I know you're having a blast in Heaven and you're even playing with our Parrots and other birds. Say hi to Gus for me. I'll talk to again soon. Love forever, Mommy xoxoxoxoxox

Arthur I miss you so much it's been over a week since you're gone but there hasn't been a day I haven't stopped thinking of you. I think Adrian misses you too. Although there are all your friends here, there's still any empty space we sense here... you will always be loved. Can't wait to see you again. Love forever, Mommy

“ Arthur showed up one spring day several years ago. He was your typical 'street urchin', hungry and lost. I don't know that he belonged to anyone , no one claimed him. He looked well fed but that was because he had a fluffy coat ,(which aside from being dirty he looked rather fit). Until you could pet him than you realized just how boney he was under that hair. He hung around the house, waited for me to feed him, hid under cars.

Very independent and street wise. He was very scrappy! Always looking for fights and being the winner too. Then we got him neutered. He still liked to fight from time to time but not as often. I can't remember how he came to live in the house but at first I invited him and he decided the basement was better suited for him. So he lived and ate in the basement and went out everyday. One day he again he decided upstairs wasn't too bad after all. Winter came and although he still went out he would shorten his time outdoors. He loved the big windows with the sun streaming in and would sit on the window sill for hours. Even at night he would love to look outside to see what activities were going on with the other strays. He developed a UTI infection that turned out to be chronic. We never expected it to be his undoing. We miss him terribly. He loved, loved, loved to be kissed on his head 'til your lips went numb then he would look up at you with such deep contentment which made me kiss him all the more. He is the one who showed us the depth of the bond he had with us. Never did I realize the depth and strength of the bond he had for us and because of that insight , it led us to see and feel likewise toward him and our other pets. I will be forever grateful to him for that. I know I will see him again when I join him in Heaven, I have no doubt about that. Until then, Arthur have fun and wait for me. We will have eternity loving each other, wow what a grand thought.

“ On 3/9/15 after about 7 or 8 years together we lost a dear pet, more like a family member, his name was Arthur. Arthur was an orange stray cat with a typical stray cat attitude. He lived with us primarily as a stray with some home boy attitude ; but over a relatively short period of time he became more and more a home body and less and less feral. The last 4 years or so of his life he had become a full blown house cat and gone was that wild boy snotty stray cat attitude, replaced by a little cutie momma's boy (and I mean that in the best sense of the word). Now I could go on and on describing all the unique little things that made Arthur , "Arthur" and made us all love him the way we did, that includes a half dozen feline brothers and sisters, an English Bull Dog named Tommy-Girl , and his best buddy a 7 year old English Bull Terrier named Chickie ; but I'd be writing here all afternoon. Loosing Arthur has been difficult but as difficult a time as this has been we draw comfort in knowing that we did all we could in providing him with the medical and physical attention he needed and that his Vet Dr. Reed from "Animal Clinic of Bayonne" gave the most professional and tender care you could hope for. Dr. Reed did anything and everything he could to get Arthur through several serious emergencies he had over the last few years. Finally after Arthur passed away on 3/9/15 , we we're blessed to find Kurt fro " Pet Rest in peace " , who provided an extra measure of care and dignity for Arthur before, during, and after the cremation. Kurt also helped put us at ease during the whole process. We thank the Lord for the 7 or 8 years that He blessed us with Arthur and we also thank Him for the grace He provided for us during the last few difficult years. We are very glad to have been able to shared a portion of our lives with Arthur. Arthur , you will be missed. Your dad, Tom
