“ Hillside's Barney Rubble was born on September 20, 2001 at Hillside Kennels in Pennsylvania. We brought him home on December 8, 2001 to join his older brother Teckel as well as Perdy and Clancy. He was always an energetic, boisterous, silly ball of fire. Barney was very well known for his exuberant wiggles and ever-wagging tail. He loved to eat stuffed animals, open presents and packing material, and hunt in the backyard. For most of his life Barney lived with Teckel and the two were inseparable, playing, eating, hunting, and sleeping together. Though he was a bit difficult at times Barney was always loving and attentive when someone was upset. If he saw anyone crying or distressed he would wiggle and wag with his big eyes boring into them. Then he would jump into their laps and lick their face until they were laughing again. Barney brought a lot of crazy wherever he went, but it always ended with laughter and his ridiculously adorable expressions. We'll miss you Barney.
