“ You were a large dog in a small body. I will never forgot your strength, your determination (some might call "stubborn"), your loving nature. You truly accepted all who came to you with willingness, curiosity and with such manners. You were a true "gentlemen". You certainly marched to the beat of your own drum - so you were the perfect friend, companion and truly belonged with our family. You came to us to fill a hole in our hearts. Now you move ahead to better things, to feel whole again, to help someone else. You are in our hearts, our souls, Beau. You are loved and sorely missed each passing minute.
