“ *I have so many fond memories of Bella. But one in particular stands out right now... The cat would hiss at Bella and sometimes even get brazen enough to hit Bella on the head with her paw. Instead of being angry, Bella would growl playfully at her and "chase" her down the hall, her tail wagging the entire time. Bella was playful, sweet and gentle, never malicious even to Tiffany the cat:-)
I miss you Bella...you're loss has left such an emptiness in my heart.*
