“ Bill, since the day you left (April 8th, 2013) I've been heart-broken. You were with me for 12 years and you will never know how much I miss you. I was the only one who could pick you up and take care of you the way I did. I will always miss my "Fat Boy". I only hope that when it all happened that you didn't suffer. I now have you with me here at home because I just couldn't bury you. I hope your time with me was a great one. I love you, Fat Boy!! <3 R.I.P Bill <3
