“ I remember when Denise and I first laid our eyes on Boo Bear in the pet store. It was love at first sight. Afterall Denise, you were the one who turned me on to the Pekingnese breed. Moving on to a different time in our lives, I remember Boo coming to visit me and my family in PA, and for some strange reason he kept chasing my son Joey and barking. Joey was small at the time and was petrified of Boo. We all did get a kick out of that. Till this day I think back at that and it makes me laugh. Rest in peace Boo! You are now in doggie heaven playing with Bambi, Trish, Blackie, Sasha, & Sushi.
