“ I'm a little Shmoppy short and stout, I love my Dad he is my pal, I'm a little Shmoppy short and stout, my Dad loves me from my tail to my snout. I love you my baby girl and will forever remember you. We saved you from euthanization and took you when no one else wanted you. You were scared and scarred, your Dad took you under his wing and worked with with every day for a long haul. He and you together transformed you into the most silly fun crazy baby girl anyone could want. You were the glue that kept your Dad together when all your brothers and sisters went to Rainbow bridge. And now you have joined them. We miss you so very much... You cannot even imagine. LOVE YOU FOREVER!!!
