“ Diggy was a great dog! Loved by all who knew him. Very vocal about receiving his boiled chicken as soon as it was ready on the stove. Diggy had his own attorney named Nancy. She stood up for him and defended his behaviors. Diggy followed me throughout the house, particularly to the bathroom where he would wait patiently for me inside the bathroom door. Bonnie, diggy's veterinary technician, loved him and called him "a million dollar dog". Diggy will be sorely missed.
