“ Yesterday we said goodbye to our furry companion Dusty of 14 years. He was the most verbal one from our other cats. He was loving and sweet boy. He will be dearly missed..rest easy and go play with your other furry friends 🌈 🐱 🐶 and then for all their special friends on their own time and play together. They are gentle, full of love and sunshine and our hearts are warm and beautiful.

All the animals who had been ill and all are returned to health and vigor. These who were laid or mangled are made whole and strong again, not as we remember, despite our dreams of days and times gone by. The animals are happy and content, though for the small things they each have someone very special to them and love to be left alone.
They all run and play together, but the difference between suddenly open and back into the distance. His bright eyes are fixed, his eager body seems suddenly to begin to rise from the group, flying over the grass again. His legs splashing like water and foam.
You have been special, and when you and your special friend
