“ Christine and family...it takes a big ❤️ to adopt and care for an older cat (and to dress him in bow ties)...whatever came before I know his last years of spoiling made up for it...thinking of you

“ Frasier was such a special boy! He was loved by all despite his habit of peeing on us when least expected. He was gentle and handsome and deserved all the spoiling he received from his family.

“ Dear Mr Frasier (a.k.a. Red) was rescued from a high-kill shelter five and a half years ago and made himself at home with us. He frequently visited his favorite doctors, Dr. Zerrenner, Dr Griglak, and Dr Carberry, but only when dressed to the nines in fashionable bow ties. His great taste did not stop at his attire, he dined on the finest flavors of Fancy Feast prepared by the best chefs at chez 251. Though usually stoic, he occasionally allowed himself to be entertained by high quality organic catnip toys or a rogue piece of string. He will be remembered for his best Puss in Boots impersonation and his ability to pee on someone every time he visited one of his doctors.
