“ *They say memories are golden
well, maybe that is true
I never wanted memories,
I only wanted you.*

*A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
you never would have died.*

*In life I loved you dearly,
in death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place
no one could ever fill.*

*If tears could build a stairway
and heartache makes a lane,
I'd walk the path to heaven and bring you back again.*

*Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*

“ *I want to add that Bogey loved when I would watch golf on the TV...he would raise his head and look towards the set whenever he would hear his name mentioned!
I tried to match him in showing love, but he won there...most dogs do.*

*Bogey grabbed my heart from the first day I met him. He loved my cats and wanted to play with them, but they didn't love him. I enjoyed taking him on my morning walk when I took care of him. He hated being alone and loved the outdoors. So to coax him back inside, I would have to go in the house and "hide" so he would come in the house to look for me. He was a funny guy and I miss him.

“ Bogey, a flashy fawn male boxer was born on July 5, 1998 and bred for the first 4 months at Jacquet's Boxers in Oakland, NJ and in the loving care of his breeder Rick Tomita (a breeder of over 230 AKC champion boxers). I met my loving dog and companion on 11/4/98 and brought him home to Cranford, NJ where he lived until the age of 13 years 6 months and 6 days.

Although he certainly looked it, a show dog he wasn't. However, a show-off he was with all the right, funny moves only a boxer it seems makes. A gigantic smile, happy and proud gaunt, quiet demeanor and kiss giver in abundance. An acute sense of knowing when I was about to get sick and always knew how to make me feel better. He was the talk of the neighborhood, loved all people (the smaller the better), loved all other dogs, cats and was very interested when meeting horses (think he thought they were very big dogs), sheep and other animals. He loved baths (I talked him into it), running figure 8's in the backyard and jumping in the snow. Hated the rain...go figure. Mostly he just loved being with me...doing anything, doing nothing.

He was indeed a blessing to me, as I hope I was to him. I miss singing to him while playing guitar and harmonic and him singing back, his hugs, smile and his occasional snores. Mostly, I miss his unconditional love...shown to me from the moment we set eyes on each other until his last breath touched my face on January 11, 2012.

A loving companionship we had and I share some pictures and musical video with you in tribute to his wonderful and beautiful life. - Joe Koury
