“ This is now the third time in six months. On Saturday Dec 23rd our dearest Jerry passed. He was diagnosed with an abdominal tumor 5-6 weeks ago. It got too big and caused a blockage to his intestines. We decided it was time. Our sweet boy was 12 and a half years old. I adopted him and his brother Ben 12 years ago. They were two shy kittens who were always passed over at adoption events. Jerry continued to be shy most of his life. I was absolutely thrilled when after living with me 10 years he was finally brave enough to jump into my lap. Once he knew what a good petting was, he came back much more often. There's not a lot of tales about Jerry. He was a sweet shy kitty but a big boy. He and his bother were hefty, no one messed with them. Jerry stood his ground if provoked. But, usually he could be found loafing in his favorite kitty bed or on a bed upstairs. Jerry, you will be greatly missed. We hope you have found across the Bridge Bailey, Patches, Jack and all the other kitties that have shared this home with you. RIP Jerry, Mommy will always love you.

“ *Unfortunately I am leaving another tribute to another member of our feline family. On December 23, 2023 our boy Jerry left us to cross the bridge. Jerrie, Jerrie, Jerrie, so skiddish, I will remember when ever I entered the room, " Get ready, get set and go and watch you scoot out of the room!
I will remember you as "Jerry Squeakers with white Sneakers". I hope you found Bailey, Patches, and Jack to play with once you crossed the bridge. You will always be in our hearts furever. I will miss you Squeakers!*
