“ My handsome baby and good boy. Papa I miss you soooooooooooooo soooooooo soooooooo much. I wish you could come back, lick my face and give me kisses, fight and bark at me when you want something. You have added so much love and sunshine into my life. You spent all of my adult years with me and now I have to continue carrying the torch without my baby. Please send me some more signs that you're okay and you love and miss me 🙄🙄
