MEETHA (2000 – 2011)

My favorite moments with you Meetha:

PURE FRIENDSHIP and COMPANION

 I will always remember the times when I open your travel bag. Your wagging tail knows that you and I will be somewhere exciting! French restaurants, shops, museums, etc. Remember the time when the security guard spotted you at the Metropolitan Museum ?*

 In my morning and evenings showers, you have always followed me. Quietly and patiently, you kept me company. Patiently waiting on the bath mat. As I draw the shower curtain, the intent look you gave me and slowly walk away knowing I am done.*

 Spending an afternoon in the yard, you quickly jump on our love seat, peacefully watching me as I water our vegetable garden and weed.*

 When I open the car door, you know exactly where you'll be sitting as I lift you up. You have always been, my greatest passenger !*

 I have truly enjoyed your company when we feed stray cats, feed the pigeons in the park , do our banking, getting our prescriptions, picking up dry cleaning items , Chinese food and getting my metro card, and all pet friendly establishments. People I deal with completely know who you are: "THE SWEET GENTLE LITTLE ONE".*

TRUST

 Your complete trust of me handling you as my precious little friend. I carry you around like my child and you just know how safe you are* in my hands.

 When you're fast asleep and hear me tap the pillow, you follow the tapping sound without opening your eyes; you go to where my hand is. It is where I want you to be.*

 The way you bite corners of our pillow cases to make you fall asleep, trusting that it is alright with me.*

 Morning and evening medication time are so easy with you... always trust that anything I do for you, is in your best interest. Thursday nights, are ears cleaning time.*

 As I leave for work, that Meetha look is there, trusting and allowing ...that I will be back for you. Those endearing exciting barks welcoming me home!*

ADVENTURE

 Remember the time you took that Toblerone from my pocketbook and I discovered what had happened after you almost consumed all? You looked so tired from the sweet chocolate shocked. Lesson I learned... to ziploc the chocolates!*

 And again, the time you took a Fuji apple from my bag and ate it all? You had diarrhea.*

 The time I kept calling your name and there was no response. I thought I lost you in the farm, I looked and looked for you that Sunday afternoon, wondering where you are. A complete surprise to see you all dirty under the cabin deck.*
