

Melanie Buxbaum

December 9, 2013

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Melanie Buxbaum

January 28, 2023 at 12:38 PM

“ Melanie Buxbaum

January 28, 2023 at 10:16 AM

AM

“ My Dearest Melanie,

She was the sweetest and most beautiful cat ever. The joy she brought to my life is beyond words. Melanie ,aka the Schnooks, was so brilliant and had a great zest for life. She had the "verve" that her Daddy wanted and loved, and was also the "lap cat" I wanted.

My Momma lovingly called her the ballabusta, my Daddy said she was very smart.

Melanie was loved and admired by all. She was so different. I couldn't wait to pick her up and take her home for the first time. I'll never forget seeing her for the first time when she was 4 weeks old. The breeder brought her in to see us in a white wicker basket with her mother and two siblings in the same basket with her. How could anyone resist these gorgeous 4 white Persian cats they were irrisistable. When I held her for the first time and looked into the most gorgeous huge copper eyes I knew she was the one.

So many stories so many beautiful years together. I miss her, love her and will never forget my beautiful and wonderful Mellie. May you rest in peace my angel.

*Love you forever,
Mommy*

amy - December 09, 2013 at 05:34 PM