“ Hi baby gir, I can't believe it's been two weeks since you've been gone. There isn't one day that goes by that I don't look at your pictures, smell your clothes and give you kisses. Some may think I'm crazy but they would never understand the connection that I had with you. You were apart of my soul and I hope that one day we will be reunited 💕 Everyone keeps telling me that it takes time to heal but honestly I don't think I will ever heal from losing you. I know you lived a long life or at least that's what everyone keeps telling me but in my eyes it wasn't long enough. You will forever be in my heart Mia. Mommy loves you forever my sweet angel. ❤️

Mia Morales - May 18, 2020 at 12:27 PM

“ Mia - You were more than just a family dog, you were my daughter. You were the greatest gift I could have ever received. At only 3 months old, Isaiah and I picked you up from the airport and you were a tiny little girl at the time. You weighed maybe 5lbs but you were absolutely perfect. I never thought I could love a dog as much as I love you. You brought me so much happiness over the years. You were so strong and feisty yet the most lovable little angel I could have ever wanted. You spent 15 years with me, right by my side and although everyone keeps telling me that is a long time for a dog to live in my eyes it wasn't long enough. I could never be prepared to lose you but I know that it was your time and I'm happy that you are at peace. I'm truly and forever grateful that you choose me to be your mom. My lady bug, my butterfly, my baby girl.... until we meet again... Mommy loves and misses you forever.
