

Nemo Vollkommer

February 26, 2021

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Nemo Vollkommer

January 28, 2023 at 12:38 PM

“ Nemo Vollkommer

January 28, 2023 at 10:16 AM

“ Oh, Malice and I are so sorry we missed this sad news so we could comfort you. I am crying as I type this. Know that he was loved by us. We will miss him. Rest in Peace, Nemo. Run free #untilwemeetagain

Deana Demko - July 18, 2021 at 05:16 PM

“ Nemo was such a great kitty. Every time I saw his dapper bow ties I just wanted to hug him harder. You were such a great mom to him and he's running around with some bow ties over the rainbow bridge thinking of you. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

Becki D. - March 01, 2021 at 10:41 AM

TA

“ It's not everyday that you meet a cat like Nemo. Christine and I used to joke that there wasn't much going on in there but there was. Magic. He charmed the people around him with a flick of his tail or when he looked at you when you talked to him. He was a pure being. He will never be forgotten, our süßkartoffelkatze.

Tara - February 28, 2021 at 06:35 PM

RV

“ Nemo was a very special pet in every way a pet can be special. We were always there for him when he needed us. And he was always there for us when we needed him. Whether I was getting the garbage ready to go out or sweeping the hallway floors, Nemo would come to my side and stay with me until the job was done correctly. Sometimes he would be asleep on the kitchen floor when I needed to mop it. I couldn't ask him to move. So I carefully mopped around him. If he got up right after I finished there would be one dry spot--in roughly the shape of Nemo. I didn't mop over it. Nemo will always be missed and loved. He is a Forever Member of the Vollkommer family.

Rick Vollkommer - February 28, 2021 at 10:47 AM

FR

The first time I met Nemo he was in a cage, looking so lonely. Before I left him that day I gave him a little stuffed dragon to keep him company. When it seemed no one was going to adopt him Chris decided he needed a forever home, so he came to live with us. He has been a dragon slayer ever since then. Always the first to greet me in the morning, looking for food and lots of chin scratches. We are so happy he shared his life with us. Francine Vollkommer francine - February 28, 2021 at 12:21 PM

DD

It makes me happy to share that I was lucky enough to be a part of Nemo's journey from the very beginning. And it makes me happier to say that, in spite of one ignorant vet's opinion, Nemo did have a purpose.

Those who are familiar with his "neuronemo" Instagram page have been treated to smile inducing photos of Nemo and his furry siblings. Nemo was also a comforting presence to the various foster babies that came through his home over the years.

But what was most apparent was the mutual love and respect with his humans, especially his mom.

The luckiest day in Nemo's life was the day he met Christine. She didn't only rescue him, she literally gave him a second chance at life. Nemo left an imprint on every human and fur friend in his life, and will be missed.

Donna DeMarco - February 28, 2021 at 01:13 PM

MA

Vollkommer/Andersen family

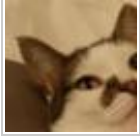

Meaghan Andersen - February 28, 2021 at 02:19 PM

MA

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

Meaghan Andersen - February 27, 2021 at 12:31 PM

“ 33 files added to the album Nemo

Christine Vollkommer - February 27, 2021 at 11:32 AM