“ We adopted our beautiful boy, Paris, from a shelter in the lush Blue Ridge Mountains in Virginia with his wife, our beloved Lady Raven, who predeceased him on April 14, 2014 in Orlando, Florida. When we first saw Paris and Raven, they had been rescued from a puppy mill where they had been surviving on a mere cup of dry dog food per day and looked like walking skeletons. Raven was 5 years old and Paris was 4 years old when we met them. As we approached the cage, Raven valiantly stood in front of Paris growling to protect him. Bill took one look and said “We’ll take the male, but I don’t know about her!” Nina couldn’t bear the thought of separating them and instead suggested that they all go on a walk. Bill took Paris and Nina took Raven and after that first walk, our love affair began. Raven and Paris were the perfect addition to our family. They were never happier than when they were with us. The size of the house didn’t matter because they would always stay right by our sides. They are together now and we are happy for them, but their absence has left a hole in our hearts filled with the love and memories we have for them. God be with you until we meet again. We love you.

So sorry to hear for your loss. Pets are part of the family and it feels like a piece of us goes with them.
