“ Peekaboo,

Today is a month that you have been gone from me & I miss you terribly. I keep forgetting that I no longer need to give you your insulin injection. I keep a watchful eye on the clock, and then get so sad when it “hits” me that you are gone from this life & are healthy in your new afterlife.

I miss you boo; I miss your hugs & your presence. For 22yrs you were my best friend & confidant. You kept all of my secrets, & caught all of my tears.

I will love you & miss you forever.
