“ Today marks the first birthday without Pelusa .... and it's also been two months since I said goodbye 🌈 I miss dressing her up for her special day, even if she didn't always love it 😭 I can still picture us singing

'Happy Birthday' and celebrating with her favorite chicken and broccoli.. Today's been tough and my heart aches, but I carry her love with me always. Happy heavenly birthday, my sweet Peli, you're forever missed ❤️ 🎈 🎂

“ One week ago my angel Pelusa crossed the rainbow bridge 🌈 this last week has been incredibly tough especially seeing constant reminders of her at home and missing her little self and big personality...still crazy how 16 years flew by in a blink of an eye

Peli joined the family at just 2 months old and she was the best Christmas gift and best present for our family throughout all these years. She came home in a corona 12 pack box and I remember the first mischief she did was pee in my room (she did this a lot throughout the years) and that night she slept in the bathroom in her corona box and did not cry or make a single peep and that was just the beginning testament of how brave and strong she was...the amount of surgeries, bad falls and seizures she had endured during her late years and she never complained and always toughen it out.

I am so grateful for all the memories I have from birthdays, holidays to walks around the neighborhood and all the milestones she was a part of from elementary school to my young adult life (how lucky was I) I'll never forget how she bit off the arms of all my polly pockets and how her favorite toy was this stuffed piggy and how she loved her chicken and broccoli but it HAD to be from her favorite chinese place (rip they lost their most loyal customer).

I'll miss all her quirks, her bombastic side eyes, her warm cuddles and her cute little nose and all those simple, everyday joys. I'll miss her barking in the morning to have me make her eggs and take her outside. Her presence was a constant source of comfort, joy, and companionship through all the highs and lows. The countless memories will forever be etched in my heart.

As I reflect on all these years together, I'm overwhelmed with gratitude for the incredible journey shared. Saying goodbye is incredibly hard, but I find solace in knowing that she lived a full and happy life, and that her spirit will always remain a part of me.

Rest well, dear Pelusita ❤️ You will always be missed, but your legacy of love will live on in the memories we shared. I'll find you in the next lifetime enana.

*With all my love,
Jennifer*

“ Thank you for the unconditional love and the beautiful memories that you brought to us for the last almost 16 years. We hope you're in eternal peace and we promise to find you in the next life. We are so happy we were blessed with your presence and we'll miss all the things that you did.

Te queremos mucho Pelusa, gracias por todos los bonitos recuerdos y por ser nuestra bebe de la casa por todos estos años.

We love you forever. Te amamos para siempre.
