“ I'm gonna miss you so much mini. You were the best dog and I loved you so much. You grew up with us and you were there when we were happy or sad. We couldn't have had a better, more loving pup. Rest now mini. I'm so glad I got to see you one last time 💕💕

“ Rest in peace Pinch. You brought so many years of happiness, love and laughter to us all. From the days of you as puppy trying to hump to when I was lucky enough to take care of you the last time I was up there, you were always there for me whenever I was around. I'll miss you climbing up on my shoulder and talking in my ear and it turning into a conversation. There are so many hilarious and great memories with you Pinch that will stay with me forever. You will be missed by every person that got to be around you. Thank you for all the memories and thank you for all the love. I love you Pinchie

“ Rest in peace Pinchie. There isn't a memory over the last 16 years that doesn't include you. The first day I gave you to dj you and dj were inseparable. You gave us joy, unconditional love, and attitude only you could get away with. You made us laugh because of your charming personality, you made us cry over plastic bags & stuffed bears, but most of all you showed us love. Deep unconditional love & you will forever remain in our hearts and memory. I love you & am going to miss you.

“ Rest in peace Pinchie. I love you. I remember the day I gave you to Dj. We hid you in the arm of nana's jacket and when your eyes met the light they were looking straight into Dj's eyes. It was love at first sight for you both.

The joy you brought to our little family was great, unconditional love you gave to us freely, and the laughter you gave us was constant. You will be missed so much. God bless you and your memory will remain in our hearts forever.
