“ Polo was born in Newark, NJ on June 7, 1999. Polo came into my life when he was only 6 weeks old. I was 21. We lived in North Bergen, NJ at the time. About a year and a half later Polo had a brother. He was so good with the new puppy. He was patient and calm with him. A few years later we left North Bergen and came back to Kearny. Polo had to say goodbye to his little brother. It was just Polo and Mom. We stayed in Kearny until December 2004 then we moved to Alaska. I was so worried to put him on a plane, but knew he could handle it. I will never forget when I landed and picked him up in the airport the look on his face when I walked up to him in his crate. He was scared and confused, but when he saw me everything was OK. Polo hated the cold and going out to walk in the snow. His feet used to get so cold he would start to lift them. But he loved laying by the fireplace inside and sitting out on the deck in the sun summertime. In July of 2008 we moved back to NJ. Polo was so good in the truck the whole 7 day drive back. He was such a trooper. He was excited to get back to the warm weather and Grammy and Grandpa. At this time he was already far into his Senior years. I have tons of great memories, photos, and videos of him. I was truly blessed to have him in my life and by my side for 15 years. I miss him terribly and will never forget him. R.I.P baby. Mommy loves you.
