“ 16 1/4 years ago, Rhett was delivered into Diana's and my hands. As all pet owners know, Rhett immediately became a family member to us. He was incredibly gentle and loving. So loving, that I often commented that he would actually warm-up to Jack The Ripper if somehow he would come into our house. Just like a little soldier, day in and day out, Rhett always would seek your attention and he would always look to either be by your feet or jump into your lap. Diana would be on the phone directing business when the person on the other end would comment: What is that unusual sound I'm hearing?? Rhett every morning would "howl" until either Diana or myself would either pay attention to him or in-his-way ask for breakfast. Diana would say that Rhett was a puppy in a cat's body. These are just a few of the many fond memories I have of Rhett... and I for one will severely miss him. If there is a "kitty-heaven", I'm sure he is there already...in fact he is probably running it. With all my love Rhett... Richard.
