Pamela,

I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your precious Sadie, your first born. I know how much you loved her, and always will. My two little ones, Buddy and Angel, are gone now too, and I miss them every day. I know how broken hearted you must be. Soon your tears will be gone and only a smile will appear when you think of Sadie, as only the happy memories will remain. I pray that day comes soon for you and your pain and sadness leaves your heart.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and Natalie.

“ Sadie was born December 1, 1997 in Seattle, Washington. I remember bringing her home at 7 weeks old, she was the smallest in her litter and I could hold her in the palm of my hand. Sadie was the sweetest and smartest girl I know, she was such a little lady, always polite (letting strangers pet her with a smile on her face); preferred to ride in a purse than walk on a leash and she loved my lap.

Sadie passed away on January 1, 2013 at 10:30 pm, I was holding her when she took her last breath and the last thing she heard was the sound of my heart beat.

Sadie was loved by so many people, her and Natalie were the best of friends, Sadie looked after Natalie as though she were her little sister, from the day she was born, Natalie had a guardian angel in Sadie.

*If tears could build a stairway
and memories were a lane,
We would walk up to heaven
and bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken,
no time to say good-bye,
you were gone before we knew it,
and only God knows why.
Our hearts still ache in sadness and secret tears still flow,
what it meant to lose you,
no one will ever know.
But now we know you want us,
to mourn for you no more,
to remember all the happy times...
life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten,*

*we pledge to you today,
a cherished place within our hearts,
is where you'll always stay.*
