“ Sammy, you were the most amazing bearded dragon ever. I will miss you following me around, keeping me company when I worked from home, waiting for us by the door, looking for us when we were not around and being happy when you found us. You were also the best big brother ever. We already miss you so much. You were so loved by the people that met you. My sweet, beautiful boy. We will never forget you. □

“ Sammy was a wise bearded dragon. I still remember whenever I opened the door he was standing there like a little guard dog. I'll always miss that about him. ❤️
