“ My little Shamrock was truly a member of the family for over 14 years. The house seems so empty without her. She was a completely innocent pup and didn't have a mean bone in her. I have so many wonderful memories of her especially when she and Sandy were together. Shammie had her way of communicating with her big eyes and the way she shook her collar to wake me early each morning. I will always remember and miss Shamrock dearly.

“ Little Shammie was truly a gentle soul with a courageous heart. She was a lucky pup to have such a loving family who cared for her, and she returned the love a thousand times over. This yellow candle is for her smiling face and wagging tail, that brightened the day of everyone she encountered. She will be missed dearly.
