my loving daughter sheeba the days go bye and I think of you and cry, but mommy's and daddy's love will never die. we opened our hearts to give love to bella and bear and I know you will approve because you know us so well. we are happy with our growing family and once again we can share our love and receive kisses from our children. it is my hope than one day we are all be together forever. always in our hearts sheeba kisses from mommy and daddy.

Sometimes In the morning I wake to see if you are by my side, I sometimes feel you and pet you but though your not here in body I still feel you nestled between mommy and daddy telling us you are here in spirit and one day we will laugh and play again together. My sheeba
