

Small Fry Vollkommer

July 16, 2025

Small Fry was the smallest Fry there ever was. She found her forever home in 2014 where she was treated like the princess she was. Her favorite toy was Gizmo, who received many cuddles and biscuits. Most of her evenings were spent requesting gentle scratches and in return she would purr as loud as she could and wag her little nub of a tail. She was the sweetest, most gentle little girl and it has been an honor to be her human.

“ Small Fry was the luckiest little fry there ever was. After spending her days laying on top of the kennels at the shelter, she was lucky enough to be transported to her castle. The castle where she spent much of her time perched in her special cat tree, overlooking her kingdom. Princess Small Fry was loved and adored by her humans, and respected by her fellow felines, as they all knew not to trespass on her domain. Forever the best biscuit maker, Rest in peace princess 🐾🐾

“ Fry was just a baby when she came for a visit. Unexpectedly she saw a chance to be free. She eventually found an opening and proceeded to investigate. She proceed to climb into the wall. Five people tried to reach her but she continued to go deeper. Then the idea, put food out and see if she comes out. Luckily we were able to get her. Little did we know that she was checking out the accommodations. In the end she had a private room which she graciously shared with her forever Mom. Such a smart kitty.

“ One time when I was visiting mom and dad, I sat in Christine's chair. While sitting in her chair, small fry came over, and then jumped on my lap. She laid down on me for several minutes. She thought I was Chris.
