“ Rest in peace Star, I remember when I first met you how you never liked me because I was a new face in the house and you were protecting your family. But as the years went by you showed more and more love each time I came and we developed a bond together. Thank you for letting me into your heart and sharing your family with me, I love you Star, you'll be missed

“ Sometimes I felt like Star understood me better than any human ever could. Her eyes spoke the words she couldn't say. Every time i came home and she'd greet me at the door no matter what time of day or night; as if she hadn't seen me for years. She was my best friend, my companion. I'll never forget you star, you will truly be missed. I love you so much.
