“ Teckel was a sweet, beautiful little sausage. I was lucky enough to have gotten to know him, and even to receive a nuzzle or two. I will remember him as being cuddly, sleepy, and perpetually hungry of course. All sorts of love to his owners and Barney.

“ Teckel was born on the Fourth of July 2001 at Hillside Kennel in Pennsylvania. We brought him home on September 1. He was without a doubt the cutest and sweetest puppy anyone had ever seen, who loved snuggling, rolling over, and treats. He loved being held like a baby and was known for being lazy, often rolling on his back to be carried instead of walking. Teckel was also a big fan of ear rubs, naps, and hunting groundhogs and rabbits in the backyard with Barney. Everyone who met him immediately fell in love with his sad eyes, and sweet disposition. If you were lucky enough to know him well he would often reward you with a loving nuzzle. Teckel was an affectionate, gentle, and adorable little dog who lived a happy life with lots of love and (perhaps too many at times!) treats. He will be mourned by his owners Tracie and Annette, and his beloved brother Barney.
