

Tyson Nieves

May 22, 2023

Our beloved Tyson, passed away May 22, 2023, leaving a void that can never be filled.

After weeks of battling an illness, Tyson was given the relief he needed to step across the rainbow bridge. We will miss him dearly, but we know he will no longer be suffering and can finally rest.

Tyson brought immense joy and happiness into our lives from the very moment we laid eyes on his adorable wrinkled face. Tyson quickly became a big part of our family, filling my home with boundless love, endless laughter, and an abundance of unforgettable memories.

With his endearing personality and gentle nature, Tyson won the hearts of everyone he met. His affectionate and unwavering loyalty were unmatched, providing comfort during both our brightest and darkest days. Whether it was a wagging tail, a wet nose, or a warm snuggle, Tyson had an ability to bring smiles to our faces.

We will forever cherish the beautiful memories. Rest in peace Ty Ty, you were and will always be an irreplaceable member of our family. Thank you for gracing our lives with your love and for being a true loyal best friend. You will be missed more than words can express.

Forever in our hearts.

“ Tyson, you were extremely loved and cared for by your fur grandma (mom) that took care of you for most of your life. You are one lucky pup! She even made the ultimate and selfless act/decision to put you out of your pain and suffering. If that's not love, I don't know what is. I hope you are happy with your sister Cariño, getting unlimited treats and belly rubs.

Tata, I am so sorry for your loss. You made the right choice and don't let anyone else tell you otherwise. You are an amazing, caring and loving woman! I love you.

CUZ, I know that it was your hardest decision to make..But you did the right thing no one one to see our loved ones suffering, He had a great life you took care of him like your own child.. I remember all the costumes, all the walk in the park but most of all his chill out cot he had a the back yard..He is now with rocky, carino..No regret he knew who was there for him..praying for you 🙏

We’re sadden to know you’re not here with all of us, but you leave lots of beautiful memories, especially when you visit and wanted to go to back to your loving home.
