“ Dearest Princess Yavee,
Today is 10 years since you left us.
Christmas has never been the same.
So much has happened since I last wrote to you. Papa is still holding on. One cancer is said to be in remission. But he is refusing any treatments, testing. You know he is stubborn like Pfissy.
Where are you both? I wonder often if you are happy and healthy with love be surrounding you both. Have u guys met Tishi and the gang.
Remember I told you about Janique, she has diabetes, Cushings disease. She gets insulin 2 times a day. She is doing better.
There is a homeless cat I took in his name is Kinghee, his parents left him behind 18 months ago. Janique does not seem to mind him being here.
I am sorry for not writing sooner.
Happy belated birthday my angel,
Today is 10 years when a piece of my heart died.
I love you forever and ever my sweet angel,
We miss you both,
Papa, Mummy

“ Dearest princess Yavrique,
So sorry that I missed your birthday, today is another year without you , eight years today you went to God, how much you are missed is unbelievable. Papa sends his love. Cancer in remission, will know more late Janique. Are you taking care of Pfistik. Did you meet up with Tishi and the Gang, I used to tell u about. I started. Masters in Autism/ABA , gotta do more to help those beautiful beautiful children. How is it there. I feel at times you and Pfissy are around, I also feel to that sometimes Janegas feels both your presence, don't scare her, She has Cushings Disease like Pfistik. Yavrique 8 years ago you saved my life when I was driving to pick up your ashes, your memories continue to save me when I need that special feeling I shared with you and the Pfissy.
At times Janique reminds me of you.
You are forever I. Our hearts , although I may not write as I used to, I am always thinking of you both and a smile comes to my face.
RIP, my Angel Yavrique
We love you,
Mummy, Papa, Janique

“ *My Sweet Princess Yavrique
Seven years today as of 6 :05 am, I woke up early almost to the time of the fateful call.
You are resting in peace with your sister Pfistik and all the other four legged kids that are with you.
What is it like, sometimes I feel like Janique is you.
She looks like you. Behaves like u. But u will let me know.
Papa is now on immunotherapy. Watch down on him and us and keep us safe U did seven years ago when you steered the car back in the right direction when I was coming to pick up your ashes eight hours later.
Yavrique the world is a bit crazy, Covid, masks , the school kids are regressing, it's not a good time for the world.
My Angel, I miss you and you are forever in my heart with Pfistik.
We love you ,

home- I slept with you for days my world has been torn apart. it will be 2 long years since you went to Rainbow Bridge
Not a day goes by and Papa and I think of you and Pfissy.
Aunty Ann came from Belgium and she brought two special angels that was placed next to your ashes.
How I wish I could hold you.
Merry Christmas in Heaven take care of Pfissy as you always did,

Always remember that you are in our hearts even though I don't write as much we are always talking about you and Pfissy. I know you are taking care of her as you always did. In two months it will be two years years and it seems like just yesterday.

There are so many people out there who shares similar pain so I know I'm not crazy to love you and Pfissy the way I do and feel. we will meet again until then you are forever in papa and my hearts and in our words.

It is still harder for Papa- you know how men are they can't express their emotions as we do. Keep me in your heart and take care of Pfissy

Tomorrow's celebration sans you will be bittersweet, I wish you would be able to have cake, but your sister whom you shared the womb, Pfissy will be 15, she is showing signs of old age and I heard Papa say to her today, that he will be her eyes, her ears, her legs, her arms -LOL (she doesn't have arms- u know Papa's vocabulary), I wish that we had a chance to do the same for you but we thank God for giving you to us and my heart remains with you-

“ Dearest Princess,
17 weeks and I love you baby

Read this today

You may not see your loved ones, but they are able to see you.

You may not hear their precious voices, but they are speaking to you in your thoughts all the time.

You may long to know if they are okay, but there's no need to worry, because they are in a state of total bliss.

You may believe you didn't have enough time to spend with them, but they can now be with you whenever they so desire.

You may not realize when they are around you, but they are sending you "without a doubt" signs all the time.

You may be worried that they are still in pain, but they are in a place of total peace, where suffering doesn't exist.

You may not comprehend why everything happened the way it did, but they are able to see the broader perspective and understand it all perfectly.

You may think that they left this earth way too soon, but they know it was their time to make the transition.

You may feel guilty about certain things you did or didn't do to them, but they are able to see through your eyes and understand your actions completely, with no judgment.

You may be preoccupied with how they died, but they want you to remember how they lived.

You may be hesitant about moving on with your life, but they want you to step forward and be happy again.

You may believe that you will never see them again, but you will join them again, many years from now when you leave your physical body.

You may feel that a part of you died after they made their transition, but in reality, life continues for the both of you.

It is what it is.
Omit, abash, uplifting, hopeful.

“ My Darling Yavrique- Our heart,
Though it is nine weeks today, all of our lives have changed since you left.
Although time has gone by as tears appear from time to time my every thought of you pains me as emotions flow and I calm myself with happy thoughts of you; the things you did, that signature
"Yavee Diva" look. The way you greeted me at the top of the stairs not caring for that treat as you gave me my kiss and sniffed my clothes to make sure I did not play with any other canines cuties meanwhile Pfistik is getting double treats.
,,, and I smile, heart sinks and I sigh,,, hoping,,, realizing,,, there will never be another you. I miss you my beloved Yavrique.

When you looked into my eyes it was as if you knew everything about me and I about you. “ HI Marsoubian Family,

Thank You so much for reaching out to us, during one of the hardest experiences we've gone through, by far, in regards to the passing of Betty. Those kind and sweet words you offered, were exactly what we needed to hear.

And yes, we feel your pain too. Betty was a special soul, just as with Yavrique. I think you might agree when I say: they weren't just a part of the family; they were the very center of it.

Its really tough knowing they are not around, but I can assure you, we will all reunite with them again, eventually.

Best Wishes,

Daniel Alvarez

PS Yavrique was a cutie.

Thank you Dan and they are the center of the family, it is now 14 days and the pain is still there. One day yes, we will reunite with our angels. I have been listening to this Buddhist Monk on u-Tube Ajahn Brahm- and it is helping me so much. Yavrique is so special and so is Betty. Keep well to everyone and my thoughts are with you.

Love, Vindra

“ So my princess, two weeks is almost here and it still feels like yesterday you were laying next to me or lifting the leg for belly rub, or sleeping with Papa and then giving that slight growl for me to come get you as we watch TV. Today was a tough day at work, had couple of crying sessions --Rad and RHE was comforting. I see you my angel and I smile because I know you love me. Hopefully tomorrow will be better. I think of the ride on the ferry to Times Square to see Auntie Ann and how you loved sitting on the upper deck deck with the wind blowing your long hair. I also thought about when you escaped from the hotel room and you were slowly coming back with your tail between your legs and the time when you and Pfissy rolled out the toilet paper and it was the cutest thing ever, well not really- you are-! Guess what?- I finally dyed my hair tonight -the gray was really bad. I have you next to me and I gonna listen to Ajahn Brahm. Goodnight my Angel- I love you!

“ I remember when Yavrique was born, along with her two sisters, Pfistek and Gracie, and their little brother, to their mother, Cheerio. It was the best thing that ever happened to me and my two sons, Dylan and Kyle. As the pups grew, Kyle fell in love with Yavrique whom he named Miss Piggy. At first, he didn't want to give her up - "She's fat just like me!" he explained. He would fall asleep with her nestled under his chin. Eventually he let both sisters go home with Vindra and Jack, and they all lived happily ever after.

Eventually he relented and the two sisters, Miss Piggy and Little Cheerio, went home with Vindra and Jack who treated them like princesses!

Eventually he relented and Miss Piggy and Little Cheerio (Pfistik) went to their new home.

Thank You Kim for allowing those two precious girls to be our daughters, our lives would not be the same without them- Cheerio gave us the best and most precious gifts- our canine daughters. As always thanks for listening.

“ She was the first born in a litter of four (grandma Kim Lemaire) named by Kyle "Miss Piggy", then came Grace, Little Cheerio(their mommy)and lastly brother Dibbons on August 13, 1999.

Uncle Nikki, Aunty Indy, Papa and I drove through a rainstorm from New Jersey to Wayland MA to choose ONE puppy, Aunty Ann was there from the moment of conception to birth and just recently, I always said that we would chose the heavier one and then she appeared a fluff of white silky ball with black rimmed button eyes and the roundest butt with great maltese markings, her tail curled all the way up with that 45ish degree slant, black paws- perfect little girl- it was decided-she will be coming home in about 6 weeks. In the meantime someone else was sneaking her way in -Grace= so we got them both.

We return to NJ counting the days and getting daily reports from Aunty Ann, However, when the time came and we were now four - We realised that instead of bringing Grace home we brought Little Cheerio- Pfistik (my love,peanut) and off course Yavrique (my Heart) aka Miss Piggy.

Having had other canine children before and vowing not to repeat the same mistakes we made a bed for them on the floor but after about five times of crying back and forth from puppy bed to real bed for fourteen years they have been sleeping with us. They just have that ability to melt a humane heart.

More to come.....

MY LIFE, MY JOY, MY EVERLOVING CHILD!
