“ We hope and pray Yoshi is prancing around in peace over the rainbow bridge and watching over his family during this difficult time. Gio is so lucky he got to meet his daddy’s first best 4 legged buddy. Rest in the utmost peace Yoshi!

“ Yoshi you were the first dog I purchased on a whim when I returned home from Afghanistan. You were always home waiting for me and always there to keep my parents company. You kept a piece of me with them when I was away. You were playful, exciting, and always friendly. You had a beautiful life and you were my dad’s best companion. I will always love you and keep you in my heart.
